I. BACKGROUND

In State Fiscal Year 2007, Maryland opted out of Medicaid coverage and the service was returned to state grant funding. Due to the flexibilities allowed by state only funding, the number of persons served did not drop dramatically, but enrollment was essentially capped. In April 2009, the State Mental Hygiene Administration (MHA) announced its intention to amend the State Medicaid Plan to return Targeted Case Management (TCM) to a Fee For Service (FFS) Medicaid reimbursable service with a small state only funding add on to serve individuals who were high service priority and not covered by Medicaid. Historically, persons in the Shelter Plus Care (SPC) Program, Supported Housing Opportunity Program (SHOP), County Detention Centers, Hospital Diversion Program, and other supported housing programs are prioritized for TCM services. Conversely, persons participating in the Psychiatric Rehabilitation Program (PRP) were excluded from eligibility. Persons transitioning from Psychiatric In-Patient Hospitalization were eligible up to 30 days prior to discharge. Both children and adults were eligible for TCM services at two intensity levels.

In 2009, a Psychiatric Residential Treatment Facility (PRTF) Demonstration Waiver was implemented in Maryland. The intent of the demonstration waiver was to provide treatment and services, through a home and community-based service waiver under the §1915(c) of the Social Security Act, for children and youth ages 6 through 21, who, absent the waiver, would require PRTF services. Waiver participants were served by Care Management Entities (CME) through a wraparound service delivery model that utilized child and family teams to create and implement individualized plans of care that were driven by the strengths and needs of the participants and families.

With the demonstration waiver nearing to its close, the MHA began planning for a State Medicaid Plan Amendment (SMPA) through the 1915(i) Community Choice for Children Youth & Families (CCCYF) initiative to incorporate the wraparound philosophy and imbed the philosophy into a Medicaid reimbursable service. Upon the approval of the SMPA by the Federal Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS) the selected Mental Health Case Management provider would serve as the Care Coordination Organization (CCO) providing TCM for children and youth enrolled in the 1915i Initiative.

The Anne Arundel County Mental Health Agency (AACMHA) desires to identify vendors to provide Mental Health Case Management: Care Coordination for Children and Youth, which includes young adults up to age 21 for each of the following counties: Anne Arundel, Prince George's, Calvert, St. Mary's and Charles counties beginning on or about November 4, 2019. Offerors must specify which county or counties they intend to serve.

Mental Health Case Management: Care Coordination for Children and Youth allows for a multi-level continuum of care coordination using wraparound principles. This multi-level continuum of care provides care coordination to children and youth to support a transition back to a home environment, remain in their home or current living arrangement, move to a lower intensity of services or restrictiveness of placement, or otherwise maintain and improve functioning and well-being.

Case Vignette

Robert is a 14-year-old Caucasian male living with his father and mother. He reports having a strained relationship with his father, who has been deployed several times in the past five years. Father is now separated from the military and is working in an autobody shop. Roberts mother works part time at a local grocery store. Robert was very close to his grandmother who passed away four months ago. Robert has been hospitalized once in the past year for suicidal ideation and has had 3 emergency room visits for suicidal ideation but did not meet criteria for inpatient hospitalization. Crisis Response has been to the school and the home to provide crisis services when Robert was having temper outbursts. The Crisis System is referring Robert to the Care Coordination Organization. Robert had one contact with Juvenile Services after an altercation he had with a friend at school. Robert has been engaged in therapy for eight months but reports that he does not like the therapist. Robert's mother is supportive of the treatment and would like to participate in family therapy but is hesitant to discuss this with her husband. Robert has become more isolated from friend in the past year and the family lacks the finance for him to participate in extracurricular activities. Roberts mother expressed to Crisis Response that she has been having difficulty dealing with the lack of progress in Roberts treatment and fears that things are going to get worse as he gets further into adolescence.

The treatment team that Robert sees has given him a diagnosis of Disruptive mood dysregulation disorder. Robert is not currently prescribed any medication, but his psychiatrist has talked to both of Roberts parents about the benefit of medication as part of his treatment continuum.
